THE CHOLERA ON THE CELTIC QUESTION.

LONDON, Sept. 17.

The Star, Radical organ, to-day states that the authority between the United States and Spain on the Cuban question is in a fair way of settlement. The tenor of the correspondence is reported to be more liberty and freedom of action, shortly to be granted by the Spanish Government, it is being seen, but if the reports of the military power exist in Cuba are true, the concessions must be made in time to prevent the insurgents from gaining the ascendency, that the Cubans be permitted to live to enjoy them.

LONDON, Sept. 17.

The Telegraph has an intimation of the pacific relations existing between Spain and the United States, whereby it

"The recognition of the Cubans would place Washington in the wrong on the Alabama question. With what consistency can she refuse to recognize belligerent rights, and Senator Sumner declare that the Cubans are entitled to them as much as the Spaniards?"

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Evening.

Any disposition to arbitrate differences are received more in the best or the steamer Cunaxia. Five passengers, three of the crew, and fifteen natives were saved, and it is supposed that they are drowned.

THE SIR JOHN FRANKLIN MONUMENT.

LONDON, Sept. 17.

The Morning Standard of to-day says an official portal is to be erected in London to the memory of remains of the Franklin expedition. The title closes: "The date on which to accept the memorial is to be determined by the Government, the fact is corroborated in a manner difficult to ascertain, we never heard of it in England."

CONDITIONS OF THE SULTAN TO THE VICEROY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 17.

The Grand Vizier has addressed a memorandum to the Viceroy of Egypt, in which he expresses astonishment at the receipt of the assurance of fealty on the part of His Highness, while his note contained an admission of the existence of differences, and also his possible refusal to comply with the strict adherence to the conditions of the recent firman manifested by the latter. The Sultan, however, is disposed to believe that he Viceroy still in the future observe strictly the following points of that firman, viz.: That the Egyptian army shall not be increased; that 8,000 muskets once stolen shall be returned to Europe or confiscated; and that all steps are beyond that number, as well as any iron-clad of any kind. He will then have been bestowed upon him, and that the public taxes of the territory shall be levied and collected in the name of and for the benefit of the Sultan; that the annual tribute shall be subjected regularly to the Sultan; that the Viceroy shall not enter into diplomatic relations with foreign governments, and that he shall submit for the Sultan's consent treaties of commerce with foreign governments, and that he shall not increase the number of troops beyond that fixed by the Hatti Sherif. The Grand Vizier adds, in conclusion, that in compliance with these conditions, and upon receipt of a satisfactory answer, as to a faithful acceptance of them, the Sultan will be very glad to send the Viceroy a decree of investiture.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1869.

THE LINCOLN PARK CASE.

The president and board of the Lincoln Park legislature introduce the struggle for the time from the courts to the Common Council of Chicago. The Illinois Supreme Court has decided that the Mayor and Comptroller must not issue the bonds, and that the act requiring them to do so without the consent of the Council was void. It remains, therefore, for the Council to say whether it will or will not consent. It is not probable that the bonds will be issued unless the Common Council gives their consent, or until additional legislation is had on the subject. The Park Commissioners will then ask, and collect a tax from the property of North Chicago and Lake View imbedded by the park.

The question which now confronts the public is, Will the Council or Central give its consent to the issue of the bonds? The decision of the Supreme Court does not say, as was incidentally said the issue of such bonds by the Common Council would be valid. It simply refers the matter back to the Council to issue the bonds or not, as to them seems best. In the case of the Board of Park Commissioners, it declares that part of the Park act giving the Mayor and Comptroller the power to issue the bonds is void, and that the act requiring them to do so without the consent of the Council was void. It is not, therefore, necessary to have the Park act repealed by the Legislature, as has been supposed by all the friends of the Park. The Mayor and Comptroller may refuse to issue the bonds, and the Council may withhold their consent to the issue, and for the same reason assigned in the authorizing act, namely, that it is sufficiently given by any act of the Legislature that the City of Chicago is authorized by the terms of the act to issue the bonds, and that the Council has no discretion in the matter. The Legislature has not decided that the Common Council has the power to issue the bonds without the authority of the Legislature, but merely that the act of the Legislature, had no authority, by the admission of another means of reaching the same end.

The conclusion seems that the Legislature must authorize the immediate authority of private or private debts and levy taxes for corporate purposes; and it is sadly understood why the Court decided that the Legislature had not power to make the Park Commissioners to issue a debt in the name of the city, and in the shape of an bound with that power. But it is also equally clear that the corporate authorities of the city of Chicago have the power to give their consent to its being created by the Park Commissioners, without an authority to do so from the Legislature. That authority it would have given; consequently, it would not have been withheld by the Legislature in the several Park acts, and also by the charter of 1863, which in terms prohibits the issue of any city bonds until previously authorized by the Legislature.

The Common Council, therefore, has no power to direct bonds to be issued to pay for Lincoln Park, nor for any other purpose, in southern Illinois, or indirectly with the modes presented by the several acts of the Legislature on that subject. It is entirely powerless in the matter. The Commissioners of Lincoln Park will not issue the bonds, and collect a tax from the property of North Chicago and Lake View imbedded by the park.

The question which now confronts the public is, Will the Council or Central give its consent to the issue of the bonds? The decision of the Supreme Court does not say, as was incidentally said the issue of such bonds by the Common Council would be valid. It simply refers the matter back to the Council to issue the bonds or not, as to them seems best. DIOCESAN COUNCIL.

Fourth Day of the Episcopal Convention of Illinois.

Rev. Mr. Reynolds Returns to His Attack Upon the Press.

The Bishop's Salary Again Under Consideration.

Three Additional Canons Presented by Mr. S. C. Judd.

The Bishop's Recollection.

MORNING SESSION.

Rev. Dr. CHANNING, Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, Mr. Phillips the Church Historian, and Rt. Rev. Dr. Potter, Bishop of Pennsylvania, were introduced to the Council.

Rev. Mr. REYNOLDS moved that the Bishop's address be referred to a committee of three, to report at the next session.

Mr. HARRIS opposed the motion, and said the Bishop's address was a private communication to the Council.

Mr. REYNOLDS said he was not aware that the address was private. He had supposed it was intended for publication.

Mr. HARRIS said that the Bishop had not intended it for publication, and that he had not read it with that intention.

Mr. REYNOLDS then withdrew his motion.

Mr. HARRIS offered the following amendment to the Constitution, which was referred:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Chair, to which shall be referred all matters relating to the Bishop's address, and all matters relating to the Bishop's salary, and that said committee report at the next session of this Council.

Mr. SULLIVAN, of Chicago, moved to strike out the word "Bishop's" and insert "Diocesan."

Mr. REYNOLDS moved to amend by striking out the word "Diocesan" and inserting "Episcopal."

Mr. HARRIS said the Bishop's address was the property of the Council, and that it should be published.

Mr. CHASE said that the Bishop's address was a private communication, and that it was not proper that it should be published.

Mr. REYNOLDS said that he was not aware that the address was private. He had supposed it was intended for publication.

Mr. HARRIS said that the Bishop had not intended it for publication, and that he had not read it with that intention.

Mr. REYNOLDS then withdrew his motion.

THE TURF.

THE MATINEE TROTTING MATINEE.

There will, undoubtedly, be a splendid turnout at Dexter Park, to-day, on a large number of well bred gentlemen's horses. The Committee of Management seems to have been on hand, a large number of people have been entertained in the grand jury of the stand, and everything will be in readiness for the commencement of the sports. The only fear is that the weather will prove unfavorable. The track is in excellent condition, and will be kept so. The following is a list of the entries, with their names, residences, and the names of the horses they will drive:

The Wells of the addition to Hermitage B, on the Ogden tract, are turned, and the water flows copiously. In a few weeks the work will be completed, and the water will be turned into the mains.

Mr. Ray to the last on record, Col. Gregory Fisk, of Chicago, has purchased of Mr. Ball, of Lexington, Ky., the trotting horse Dictator, by Hambletonian, dam by Mambrino Chief, for $10,000 in gold. Dictator is a bay horse, fifteen hands high, and is said to be a very handsome animal.

The Directors of the Chicago Driving Park Association have decided to hold a Fall Meeting, commencing on Tuesday, October 5, and continuing four days. The purses will be $1,000 each day, and the Directors will have four or six running races each day.

The Rensselaer Union of Saturday says: "Mr. Wm. Hamilton, of Chicago, has purchased of Mr. Wm. Parkinson, of this county, the trotting horse Dan Rice, 2:29, for which he paid $1,000. Mr. Hamilton will take the horse to Chicago to-day."

The Rensselaer of J. M. Miller, No. 121 Michigan avenue, was found early entered on Thursday, and will be ready for delivery on the 20th inst. Those who have entered their horses for all contests taken place.

THE RIFLE MATCH.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Yesterday was the third day of the rifle match between Company C, Second regiment, and Company C, Fifth regiment, Lieutenant Colonel Hall's command. The match was by Company, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. The following was the score:

The Chicago Rifle Club held their regular weekly shooting at the Crosby Club's office, in the Good Templar's Hall building, last evening.

The New Lighthouse, situated on the furthest point of the south pier, is nearly completed.

Mary Stevenson, a colored woman, died of gin, at the St. Louis depot, early yesterday morning.

The Louisiana Literary Society meets this evening in Unknown Hall.

ANOTHER MURDER.

Fatal Result of the Recent West Side Wife-Shooting Affair.

Death of Mrs. Rose Walsh—Particulars of the Tragedy.

After more than a week of great pain and mental as well as bodily suffering, Mrs. Rose Walsh, the victim of a shocking assault with a pistol, perpetrated by David Welch, her illegal husband, expired at the residence of her sister, No. 645 South Jefferson street, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The immediate cause of death was congestion of the brain, produced by the wounds of one of the bullets, and by erysipelas, which, from what we can learn, had set in on the day previous to the last. Dr. Ingalls was in attendance upon the unfortunate lady during her illness, and had every reason to believe that she would recover. Mrs. Walsh herself was sanguine of recovery, and had no fear of death. She was conscious to the last moment, and retained her mental faculties to the end. Her husband, Mr. Walsh, was with her when she died, and was deeply affected by the sad event.

Regarding the circumstances of the tragedy and the antecedents of the parties, we have already published, most of which is substantially correct. Mrs. Walsh was a native of Ireland, and was married to Welch in Chicago, in 1865. The latter, who was a widower, with three children, was a man of violent temper, and frequently ill-treated his wife. Finally, on the 10th inst., the husband and wife had a quarrel, which resulted in the former shooting the latter with a pistol, the ball entering her left breast, and passing through the body. Welch then fled, but was subsequently arrested, and has remained in custody ever since. The murderer was taken before Justice Summerfield, on the day after the shooting, and was committed to the County Jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

The funeral of the deceased will take place from the residence of her sister, No. 645 South Jefferson street, at 2 o'clock p. m. to-day (Saturday). The remains will be interred in Calvary Cemetery.

Rock Florida Wrongdoer Gone Partially and the Boatsgenerally.

Frank Curl, owner, with some of the interested parties, is down at Rock Florida, and it is reported that probably any stakes made by the city, was the scene of a terrible, and what will prove fatal, accident on the evening of the 14th inst. Mr. Curl, accompanied by a party of friends, had driven down to the river, and were about to embark in a boat, when the horse became frightened and backed off the bank, throwing the occupants of the carriage into the water. The boat was in charge of Mr. Curl, and he, with the assistance of Mr. Wm. Hamilton, succeeded in rescuing the ladies and children. Mr. Curl, however, was unable to save himself, and it is feared that he has met with a watery grave.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

ROCK FLORIDA, Sept. 17.

Mr. Curl was in the boat with his wife and children, and was about to step ashore, when the horse became frightened and backed off the bank, throwing the occupants into the water. Mr. Curl, who was unable to swim, sank immediately. Mr. Hamilton succeeded in rescuing the ladies and children, and then dived for Mr. Curl, but was unable to find him. The body of Mr. Curl has not been found, although search has been made for it.

Mr. Curl was a native of Ireland, and was about 40 years of age. He was married, and has a family residing in this city. He was a member of the Chicago Fire Department, and was well known and highly respected by all who knew him.

The Rock Florida Pleasure Club, on the Rock River, will hold a regatta on the 23d inst. The course is from the mouth of Rock Creek to the mouth of Rock River, a distance of about 3 miles. The following are the entries:

Single scull, Fred. Schmidt; double scull, Fred. Schmidt and Wm. Hamilton; four-oared shell, Rock Florida Club; four-oared barge, Rock Florida Club; four-oared barge, Rock Florida Club; four-oared barge
